

Story Time

1 year to 2 years

Objective: The child is able to listen to and follow along when hearing a story about summertime.

Materials needed:

Summertime Storybook (eBook printable)

Procedures:

1. Sit in a quiet area around your house to read or read to child straight from computer screen.
2. Start from the beginning, reading the title page to your child.
3. Begin reading the book. Point to each picture, say its name and ask your child to try and 'repeat or say' the word after you.
4. Then read the sentence(s) on the bottom of each page, which describes or uses each word to express meaning. Point to each word as reading.
5. Re-read this story book to your child more than once this month for them to really begin understanding and grasping the meaning of certain summertime words and pictures.
Consistency is what will build their capacity

Story Time

1 year to 2 years

for language development.

Milestones to meet:

The child can listen to a story. The child shows willingness to try and repeat a word after hearing it. The child can look at pictures and begins to build language through association.

Evaluation:

Did this lesson work for your child? Why or why not?