

Apples for Infants

Ages 1 year to 2 years

Objective: The child learns how to count, recognize colors, and determine same and different after exploring with apples.

Materials needed:

Apples for Infants (printable)

Procedures:

1. Following what is listed for you on the printable, choose one or more of the apple activities to do with your infant today.
2. You can use real apples or cut out pictures of apples from the computer, book, or magazine.

Apples for Infants

Ages 1 year to 2 years

8. Continue until child no longer shows any interest or you have completed most of the activities listed on the printable sheet guide.

Milestones to meet:

The child begins to learn how to count from 1-5. The child learns their colors. The child builds early math skills while exploring with apples.

Evaluation:

Did this lesson work for your child? Why or why not?